Re: United States v. Bernie Almonte
19 Cr. 348 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Bernie Almonte is scheduled to proceed to sentencing on December 11, 2020. ✓ 50 J
Without objection from the government, I write to respectfully request that the Court adjourn his sentencing until a date in the spring.

Mr. Almonte would like to proceed to sentencing in-person, and, he plans to ask several family members and friends to accompany him, just as they did at his guilty plea before the pandemic. However, he and his family have significant health problems. In particular, his mother, who is at an advanced age, suffered a stroke that causes lingering issues. Traveling and appearing in the courthouse for Mr. Almonte's sentencing would potentially expose her to risk of serious illness should she contract Covid-19. As the Court is aware, the Covid-19 positivity rates are currently increasing in the district.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court adjourn the sentencing until the spring, so that his family and friends do not have to choose between exposing themselves to the potential for serious illness or not physically appearing on Mr. Almonte's behalf to support him.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/
